

SATHI (Social Advancement Through Health Initiatives) is looking for a Project Coordinator for their Aastha Project on HIV/AIDS prevention with a population of CSW's in Turbhe Stores, Navi Mumbai.

Qualifications: candidate should have a Master's degree in the fields of Social Work, Counseling or Clinical Psychology from a recognized University.

S/he should have community experience in the field of HIV/AIDS or with CSW's and some leadership experience.

Other requirements: Fluency with Hindi and English at a minimum, fluency in Marathi will be viewed favourably. Familiarity with computer programs is a necessity.

Responsibilities include: supervising and monitoring staff field work and reporting, administration of project expenses, coordinating with monitoring and funding agency, assisting in organization of health camps and clinical activities, assisting with formation of community based organization, dealing with staff human resource issues, supervising TISS students, planning activities to take project forward, etc.

If interested, please contact: Dr. Hemal Shroff (hemal.shroff@gmail.com) at the earliest.

Please note: The project is based in Navi Mumbai