Diploma in Youth Development and Social Change
(Duration : 10th June to 30th April 2017) Medium of instruction: English

Overall objective : To provide certified training to those engaging with youth, and youth themselves, in order to maximise social change through youth development and empowerment.

Specific training objectives:

1. Provide knowledge about the issues related to youth, and enable the trainees to contextualize these issues and gain critical awareness of challenges in today's world.
2. Help the trainees to reflect on the institutions/policies/cultural beliefs that influence the lives of youth in the process of effecting desired change.
3. Provide the trainees with an understanding of the range of practice skills required when intervening with youth.
4. Build capacities of the trainees to empower youth to identify their rights and responsibilities and facilitate their participation in issues affecting them.
5. Help trainees to understand and identify with the value framework underlying the concepts of social development and the direction of social change.

By the end of the Course the students will be able to:

1. Apply the learnings and upgrade their skills, in their interventions with youth at their current work situation;
2. Be motivated to reach out to youth populations and use their training to empower large number of youth , through awareness and skill training.
3. Utilise the learning experiences during the course, for their personal growth and transformation.

Duration of the Course: One- year, Part-time Programme: Friday (6.00 p.m. – 9.00 p.m.) and Saturdays (10.00 a.m. - 6.00 p.m.).
