

National Dialogue on Gender-Based Cyber Violence

1-2 Feb 2018 | TISS MUMBAI Campus

An initiative of IT for Change & Advanced Centre for Women's Studies, TISS Mumbai

31 OCT 2017
Online violence: Police should recognise it's about privacy not obscenity

31 OCT 2017
'Men's rights activists' troll consultation on National Women's Policy

College student kills himself after being 'outed' on Facebook

31 OCT 2017
Dalit rights activist challenges casteism and misogyny of 'Indian Memes for Creamy Teens'

Want to move beyond headlines to an in-depth conversation on the issue?
Keen to have meaningful discussions on what would it take to address gender-based cyber violence?
The National Dialogue is the space for you.

The National Dialogue on Gender-based Cyber Violence seeks to move beyond sensationalism, and enable a systematic stocktaking of the issue from a feminist standpoint, through panel discussions with leading scholar-practitioners, student presentations, and creative student-led events.

How can you participate?

Paper presentations

We are accepting abstracts for paper presentations. Last date for submitting abstracts is 8 December 2017. For details, see: <https://tinyurl.com/y9l6kz6v>

Open sessions

We invite student bodies to submit proposals through their college for open sessions (story telling, tech training, theatre, digital art installations...). The floor is yours.

For queries or to submit abstracts and proposals for open sessions write to nationalseminargbv2017@gmail.com

Last date for abstracts and open session proposals: 8 Dec, 2017

Last date for paper submission (only for selected abstracts): 5 Jan, 2018