The School of Management and Labour Studies has 5 Centres in (I) Social and Organisational Leadership; (ii) Human Resources Management and Labour Relations; (iii) Labour Studies; (iv) Social Entrepreneurship; and (v) Public Policy and Governance and also Labour Market Research Facility (LMRF).

Brief About the Project

NTPC aims to focus on implementing Community Development (CD) programmes in the affected/neighbouring villages around its operating stations. To accomplish this mission, it is imperative to carry out Social Impact Evaluation (SIA) to identify the social, economic, education, health, quality of life, houses & household amenities, infrastructure, disability, vocational training and cultural needs of the villages, societies that can facilitate in formulating a comprehensive short term and long-term development programme. The results of the survey then guide future actions. Social Impact Evaluation basically means the evaluation of qualitative and quantitative impact of the Community Development Programs carried out by the organisation on the community. The evaluation process shall help an organisation to create positive brand on image and contribute to sustainable development.
