

The List of Project Proposals Accepted into the Proposal Bank of National CSR Hub, TISS

Sr. No.	Name of the Organization	Title of the Proposal	Thematic Area	Geographical Area	Budget	Brief Summary of the Project
1.	Social Work and Research Centre(SWRC) / Barefoot College	Solar Electrification of Non-Electrified villages through the training and empowerment of barefoot women solar engineers all over India	Environment/energy/ livelihood /women's empowerment /skill development	20,000 households in off-grid villages in tribal, cold desert, (Ladakh), hot desert areas (Rajasthan) and coastal and mountain villages/dhanis/Kasbas	Rs. 100 Crores ( for 2 years)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The project aims to Establish 40 Training Facilities throughout 12 States in India to train 400 rural, illiterate and semi-literate rural women to be Barefoot Solar Engineers.</li> <li>• The project also aims to solar electrify 20,000 households.</li> <li>• The women beneficiaries would come to Tilonia, Rajasthan and be immersed in a 6 month solar engineering training program. The women are trained to create, install, repair, and maintain solar home lighting systems. “Learning by doing” is the philosophy adopted for training by the Barefoot College.</li> <li>• The “Barefoot Model” of solar electrification leaves the management, control and ownership to mobilised and sensitised rural communities, thus demonstrating the proven model of technically and financially self-sufficient solar electrified villages in India.</li> </ul>

2.	Shantilal Muttha Foundation (parent organization Bharatiya Jain Sanghatana)	Mulyavardhan (MV)- a school-based programme on values education for democratic citizenship through a whole school approach	Education	700 government primary schools in 34 clusters in 34 districts of Maharashtra (all districts of Maharashtra excluding Mumbai and Mumbai suburban)	Rs. 9,80,37,761 (for 3 years)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The programme aims to help students develop values/attitudes and competencies for democratic citizenship, in an enabling school environment.</li> <li>• Programme aims to transform not just the attitudes and behaviours of individual students but also the governance of schools through development of values of democratic citizenship.</li> <li>• The programme embodies the scaling up the similar successful experiment conducted in Beed district of Maharashtra,</li> <li>• Programme is to be implemented through partnership with Govt of Maharashtra (GoM), with GoM owning the project and SMF providing technical support.</li> <li>• The programme has evolved through continuous field trials since 2009 and has incorporated recommendations from experts in NCERT, MSCERT, and Cambridge &amp; Oregon Universities.</li> <li>• Programme is characterized by very granular definition of outcomes and possesses significant sustainability elements such as buy-in from Govt of Maharashtra and capacity building of key stakeholders in the school system.</li> </ul>
----	---	--	-----------	--	-------------------------------	--

* For further details on the project proposals, Kindly contact the National CSR Hub, TISS, Mumbai.

Contact Details:

: Dr Ananya Samajdar/Ms Nimisha Shah
Room No 1004, 10th Floor,
M.S. Gore Building, Naoroji Campus,
Tata Institute of Social Sciences (TISS)
V.N. Purav Marg, Deonar - 400088
Phone no – (022) 25525843 / 25525848
Email Id: csrprojectobservatory@gmail.com.